1. In 1950 work was started on a highway from Campulung to Radauti via Sadova. Its length from Campulung to Sadova is 6 kilometers, and from Campulung to Radauti 25 to 30 kilometers. The road, which leads through the mountains, shortens the present distance by 50 percent. The highway is named after General Emil Bodnaras.
2. A number of persons were arrested on the street in various towns and forced to work on this road for two or three months. Some factories and other enterprises sent "voluntary" workers for one or two weeks.
